Cutcher & Neale

SPECIALIST MEDICAL SERVICES

Innovative thinking. Traditional values.

Our background

The Firm was established in 1953

Today, Cutcher & Neale comprises six Partners and over eighty staff across eight specialist divisions.

Our success is grounded in the traditional values of absolute integrity, personal service and professionalism coupled with innovative thinking.

With offices in Newcastle and North Sydney, we're ideally located to service clients from the Illawarra to the Far North Coast.

A focus on medicos

From day one, medico clients have been at the heart of our business. As a result, we have an intimate understanding of the unique requirements of the medical profession acquired over almost 60 years.

We provide expert accounting, taxation and business advice to practitioners from all disciplines including specialists, GPs and consultants.

Our active involvement in the industry includes:

- AMA (NSW) Preferred Partner, Accounting
- Long term sponsor of the Australian Association of Practice Managers (AAPM).
- Training, auditing and consulting for a number of GP Divisions of NSW
- Regular article contributions to industry publications including Medical Observer and Money in Practice.
- Regular guest speakers to industry related seminars and conferences.
