Cutcher & Neale unveils plans for major renovation project

Cutcher & Neale has this week unveiled plans to refurbish their office. Clients and staff are set to benefit from a large scale renovation project commencing at The Bolton Building 25 Bolton Street Newcastle. This will significantly increase parking and produce modern and accessible meeting and reception facilities.

The building will soon boast a range of new meeting rooms, showpiece entry and reception area, double level secure car park with 33 spaces and open plan working environments. The façade of the building will be enhanced providing new glazing which will improve the appearance from Bolton Street.

Partner, Ian Neale said: "This project is a major milestone for Cutcher & Neale as it demonstrates our commitment to our existing inner city location. It also provides our clients and staff with state of the art facilities presented in an accessible and efficient way".

During the three month construction period it is not anticipated that there will be any disruption to operations.

Established in 1953, Cutcher & Neale is one of the largest regional accounting and consulting firms in Australia. Located in the CBD, Cutcher & Neale's 90 staff members occupy four floors of The Bolton Building. Consisting of eight divisions, accounting and taxation services, assurance and risk management; consulting and finance; information technology; investment services, litigation support & superannuation technical support. Cutcher & Neale is one of the few firms outside the Sydney area that provides a complete professional services package to clients.
