

Nick Gaudion
DIRECTOR

Experience

Nick is the Director of our Forensic Accounting division.

He began his accounting career in 1991 with Deloitte Melbourne, where he learned the fundamentals auditing small to medium private and public companies. He transferred to Deloitte's Parramatta office in 1996. Here he developed a keen interest in forensic accounting and made the decision to specialise in this area.

Nick further broadened his experience during an eighteen month secondment to Deloitte Calgary, Canada, where he assisted in damage quantification claims in the manufacturing sector.

After returning to Australia and the birth of his first child, Nick and family moved to his wife's home town of Newcastle. He eventually found his way to Cutcher & Neale where his passion and dedication to clear, concise and impartial advice has resulted in the early settlement of many matters.

Expertise

Nick specialises in damage quantification and valuations for litigation and other dispute resolution forums. He has assisted in many areas of law including Breach of Contract/Warranty, Trade Practices, Personal Injuries and Family Law matters.

His experience covers all stages of dispute resolution from preparation of preliminary estimates to assist with case strategy through to giving evidence in court, including the Federal Magistrates Court, the Family Court of Australia and the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Nick has provided expert advice and reports in the following types of matters:

- Economic loss claims including loss of profits, both past and future (goodwill), price erosion and additional costs
- Valuation of various financial interests including shares, businesses, companies, trusts, partnerships, employee share scheme entitlements and superannuation interests
- Unrecorded revenue and its impact on valuations
- Disputes arising from the purchase and sale of a business
- Personal economic loss claims including loss of business income and loss of superannuation entitlements

Highly regarded in his field, Nick has written technical papers and presented at numerous legal seminars and forums.

Nick is committed to helping the legal profession make sense of the dollars in dispute resolution

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Business
- Chartered Accountant

Associations

- ICAA Forensic Accounting Special Interest Group
- ICAA Business Valuation Special Interest Group

■ Newcastle
02 4928 8500

■ Sydney
1800 988 522

forensic@cutcher.com.au